

ACTIVITIES

The Pays d'Auge and the Côte Fleurie are full of activities: horse riding, pony club, golf, bike hire, kayaking, tree climbing, etc. You will find a selection of these in the guides in the library. The Beuvron-en-Auge tourist office (like the village) is well worth a visit. There is also the Lisieux tourist office closer to the house.

WALKS & HIKES

Here are two walks starting from the village of Mesnil-Eudes, lasting approximately 3 hours and 3.5 hours:

TOURISM

A short summary of visits, places to discover & walks:

→ Go on a tasting visit to one of the cider cellars

→ Stroll around Beuvron, Bonnebosq, Cambzemez, Beaufour, Manerbe, and get lost in the back roads, spotting a manor house or stud farm hidden behind a hedge

→ Visit Beuvron-en-Auge, the postcard village of the Pays d'Auge, with its typical Norman houses and panoramic view from the church of Saint-Michel de Clermont. Head due west towards Beaumont-en-Auge (discover the view from behind the church and the artists' shops)

→ Visit the gardens of the Pays d'Auge and the exhibitions at the Grange aux Dimes in Cambzemez

→ Take a trip back in time at Crèvecoeur-en-Auge castle. Make a series of interesting stops on the way to Falaise: Canon castle, Saint-Pierre en Auge, Vendevre castle, William the Conqueror castle, the museum of automata and the museum of civilian victims of war. In Saint-Pierre-en-Auge, visit the Norman vineyard "Les Arpents du Soleil"

→ Admire the château at Saint-Germain-de-Livet, the church and its jardin du Curé, then take a detour to the manor house at Coupesarte

→ In Lisieux: explore the Carmelite Convent, the Cathedral and the Basilica of Sainte-Thérèse

→ In Pont l'Évêque: visit "Calvados experience" for a fun insight into cider and calvados production

→ In Monfleur: Visit the harbour, the art galleries, the picturesque narrow streets, the church of Sainte-Catherine, the museums (Maison Satie, Maison de la Marine, Maison du Vieux Honfleur, Naturospace, etc.), then take the coastal road to Érouville and its fish market (seafood tasting on site), Dezville and its "planches" (promenade), Moulgatzé and its shellfish beach or Caubourg and its long jetty with a promenade of almost 2km

The Route du Cidre takes you on a signposted tour of the Pays d'Auge, with its beautiful rolling countryside, fields of apple trees, half-timbered houses, châteaux, stud farms and manor houses, and its most beautiful villages.

Feel free to get lost in one of the countless narrow country roads that criss-cross the cider route and its hedgerows. There are no large fields, but rather a multitude of meadows and orchards grazed by peaceful herds of cows and dashing horses!

Take a detour and discover Beaufour-Druval, Rumesnil, Victot-Ponfol, Saint-Aubin-Lebizay... and stop off at one of the cider producers in the Pays d'Auge, who will be delighted to show you around their farms and offer you the honour of a tasting session.

WHAT WOULD NORMANDY BE WITHOUT THE RAIN?

Don't worry, we've put together some activities to make up for it—a few drops aren't going to deter us!

Make the most of poor weather by visiting museums and places of interest: châteaux (Château de Saint-Germain-de-Livet, Château de Crèvecoeur, Château Le Kinnor), religious monuments (Basilique Sainte-Thérèse, Cathédrale Saint-Pierre, Carmel de Lisieux), museums (Musée Schlumberger, Calvados Père Magloire L'Expérience, Musée du Vieux Manoir, Musée du Camembert) and the many other treasures to discover!

COLOMBE POCKET GUIDE

Several tourist guides are available in the library, so you can put together a programme that's just right for you. But we've also decided to share some useful addresses and our favourite places with you. So feel free to leave your cosy nest and explore the surrounding area.
